CRITLEDEN RECORD-PRESS.

N. E. CALMES, Editor and Publisher.

Entered as second-class matter February 9th, 1907 at the post-office at Marion, Kentucky, under the act of Congress, of March 3rd 1879.

We feel that it is incumbent upon Senator J. R. Catlett of this district to explain to his constituency his reason for change of front on the County Unit Bill. He has on different occasions voted to send it to an unfriendly committee. A committee at whose hands it can expect nothing but strangulation.

Can it be possible that a senator representing a constituency as intelligent and patriotic as any other in the State, would so soon forget his pledge to the people and his party? Would he prove faithless to Mr. Pogue and others whom he told to announce that he would stand by the temperance people and support the county unit bill?

Can it be that a man in full possession of his faculties would sign a pledge on the 26th of last October and before three months rolled by repudiate it?

PLEDGE BY SENATOR CATLETT WHEN SEEKING ELECTION

Princeton, Ky., Oct. 26, 1909.
Rev. T. S. Buckingham.
Anti-Saloon League, Louisville, Ky.

Dear Sir:—In reference to the question as to my attitude toward the County Unit Bill, I elected to the next General Assembly from the Fourth Senatorial District.

In answer I will say, that if elected from this Senatorial District I shall vote and work for the measure and do my utmost to get it passed into a law.

Respectfully Yours,

J. R. CATLETT.

Will the Honorable Joshua tell if he calls his action in the Senate "working for its passage?" If so, deliver us from such assistance.

Will he tell us why, that almost at the same time that Marion Pogue, Bob Aikin and Forest Porter were representing the people of Crittenden Caldwell and Webster counties in the House by voting on every roll call to advance the county unit bill, you, a senator, representing the same people and honor bound by the above pledge, was voting in the senate to destroy the same measure?

When Senator Watkins read your pledge to the senate and made some ugly insinuations, why did you not rise in your place and explain, instead of sitting in your seat dumb as an oyster?

Dear Senator! I hope that you can give a satisfactory explanation and yet right yourself before the people—yes temperance people who on the strength of your pledge voted for you regardless.

If the people are misunderstanding you, explain, so that their humiliation will pass away.

Explain, Senator, Explain, Explain.

We call special attention to the page ad this week of the Sturgis Dry Goods Company at Sturgis. They are great advertisers and as is their yearly custom, they are putting on their spring "White Sale" that has always drawn tremendous crowds to Sturgis. This sale commences February 11 and closes February 22, Washington's birthday and also the day the fine Piano is to be given away. This piano is a high price, fine toned instrument that the purchase of but a dollar may secure for you. For every dollar you spend with them entitles you to a chance. A trip to see them will be worth more to you than a trip to Evansville and besides it is keeping your money at home. And then you will see that in various instances their goods are ten per cent below selling price and in many instances articles, they do not want to carry over, the prices are cut half. This well known firm have always made good what they say and every sale drawing greater crowds every year. In other words the big White Sale put on by the Sturgis Dry Goods Co. are favorably commented on from the time they are gone until they come again. By all who have ever attended them they are looked forward to with pleasure. You will miss some splendid bargains and a chance of winning a beautiful piano if you miss this big event from February 11 to February 22.

The best way to judge a good, live, moral town is by her support of the ministry the missions and every auxiliary of every church.

The town that contributes freely in distributing the gospel in the benighted lands is as a city on a hill.

o o o

Please notice how few delinquents the tax book show in towns and counties freed from saloon burden and curse.

o o o

The contempt in which Senator Catlett is held by the good democrats here is inexpressible.

The fact that A. O. Stanley had two opponents—men held in high esteem by the people of the Second District, made his the greatest victory in congressional history in the State

We are compelled to offer an apology to our contributors and correspondents this week for not being able to publish many of them due to the sickness of our valued foreman, Cleveland Stone. The remaining force have worked hard every day and most of each night to handle all the matter, but it could not be done. It is seldom the case that you see page ads from out of the county merchants. But you see we have one and likely to have others. To those having left orders for envelopes and paper we ask that you bear with us until our foreman gets well when we can then soon catch up.
